Michael Williams Sensei
Chief Instructor Aikido
Yuishinkai International

Taiki Okajima Sensei
General Manager of Kansai
district Aikido Yuishinkai

An original student of O-Sensei and a professional instructor since 1967, Maruyama Sensei is widely admired and respected throughout the world. Maruyama Sensei has dedicated his life to communicating the benefits of 'positive mind' through Aikido training. Maruyama Sensei's accessible and inspirational teaching style, infused with humour, vigour and grace, is an example of positive, non-contentious mindfulness and 'Aikido without Boundaries'.

Yuki - The healing art of Aikido

Maruyama Sensei will also teach Yuki to promote understanding and heightened sensitivity for those wishing to practice this hands-on healing concept for the benefit of family and friends. Yuki is used to invigorate the body and create a climate by which the body can heal itself. This session is open to the public.

Michael Williams Sensei, 9th Dan Aikido Yuishinkai, Founder of Goshinkan Dojo, Byron Bay, International Chief Instructor and Australian Chief Instructor will teach four sessions, one of them an early morning session of 'Weapons on the Beach'.

Taiki Okajima Sensei, 8th Dan Aikido Yuishinkai, will visit Australia for the first time. His four teaching sessions will encompass: The basics of Daito-ryu, Applied techniques of Daito-ryu as well as Sotai-ho and Reiki methods.
